DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-9, drawn to an organic electroluminescent display device, classified in class 313, subclass 504.
- II. Claims 10-18, drawn to a method of fabricating an organic electroluminescent display device, classified in class 445, subclass 24.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the organic electroluminescent display device can be made by forming a first electrode on an inner surface of a first substrate; forming a plurality of switching elements and a plurality of driving elements interconnected on a second substrate having a plurality of pixels; forming a plurality of connecting electrodes interconnected to each of the driving elements; forming a plurality of partitions over the first electrode, the partitions being formed along boundaries of neighboring pixels; forming an insulating layer pattern between the first electrode and partitions; forming organic light-emitting layers on the first electrode; forming second electrodes on the organic light-emitting layer; patterning the insulating layer along the partitions to extend to contact regions of the connecting electrodes and the second electrodes; and bonding the first and second substrates together, wherein the connecting electrodes of the first substrate contacts the second electrodes of the second substrate.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to Robert Goodell on 16 June 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
